

Scholarly Products and Evaluative Criteria

The following is a summary of the expectations for meritorious scholarship as recently approved by the Ranked Faculty Meeting in the spring of 2015. The full document can be viewed on Canvas.

30 Scholarly Product:

c0 Scholarly Product Level 1(lesser significance)

- Present scholarly work in a low-competition or moderately competitive professional venue" or organization related to the discipline
- Deliver invited address or speech at a low-competition or moderately competitive" professional venue
- Perform or display a scholarly/creative work in a low-competition or moderately" competitive audience
- Publish a discipline-specific work in a low-competition or moderately competitive venue" or with publishers utilizing a high acceptance rate for publication
- Receive a low-competition or moderately competitive, non-Messiah Wpkxgtukv{ grant, award,"recognition, or honor related to discipline-specific scholarship or practice
- Serve as a consultant in a discipline-related context where selection indicates a respected" reputation in your field (must be accompanied by a written report that could be" disseminated to the scholarly community and evaluated for quality)

d0 Scholarly Product Level 2 (greater significance)

- Present scholarly work in a highly competitive professional venue or organization related" to the discipline
- Publish discipline-specific work in a highly competitive venue or with publishers" utilizing a competitive acceptance rate for publication
- Perform of display a scholarly/creative work in a highly competitive audience or venue
- Deliver an invited keynote address at a high-level venue in one's discipline
- Receive a highly competitive, non-Messiah Wpkxgtukv{ grant, award, recognition, or honor" related to discipline-specific scholarship or practice 40 To be deemed meritorious in the area of scholarship, a term-tenure-track faculty member must" demonstrate one of the following over the five- or six-year period of his/her review:

- c0 Regular production of scholarly products in Level 1, i.e., an average of approximately one per" year during the review period
- d0 Intermittent production of scholarly products in Level 2, i.e., two or three during the review"