

The time line for the processing of financial aid applications should be as follows:

- New students: Although you may file your FAFSA beginning October 1, we won't be able to send you a financial aid package that early. We hope to begin sending financial aid packages to new students by mid-